

Today, you will be working individually to create a FakeBook of a colony. You will be assigned a colony to research. You may use the powerpoint slides in this Evernote as well as any of the websites listed below.

You will be creating a FakeBook for your colony just like you would one for yourself.

*INSTEAD OF CREATING A FAKEBOOK, Create a word document that answers the questions, and that will be accepted as well. Choose a Colony****

Name would be the name of your colony. (5 pts)

Date of Birth would be when it was founded. (5 pts)

Hometown: Tell me if it was in the New England Colonies, Middle Colonies, or Southern Colonies (5 pts)

Family would be who settled your colony: EG: Father would be the person who founded it; If it is a royal colony, the GrandFather would be the king. (5 pts)

About Me: Include pertinent information such as its religion, politics, and interests. Are they an agrarian society, or factory based? What is the climate there? Do they own slaves? What is their opinion on education? Are they more conservative or liberal in their politics? (10 pts)

Friends: Who would be your friends? You can add them and images in the Friends section. Have at least 6 (10 Pts)

Wall: You can post comments to the wall. You need at least 10 comments from different "people" (probably other colonies, but can be what ever). If one colony was friendly with another, this would be the place to mention it. If there are famous people, mention them here. (30 pts)

The Colonies are:

Connecticut

Delaware

Georgia

Maryland

Massachusetts

New Hampshire

New Jersey

New York

North Carolina

Pennsylvania

Rhode Island

South Carolina

Virginia
